Mr. Aguilar reported to the U.S. Probation Office on October 5, 2010. He indicated he wanted to move as soon as he could from his sister's residence to his girlfriends house at 7711 Cordero Drive in Pasco, Washington. Mr. Aguilar was instructed to notify this officer when he moved to the new residence.

Re: Aguilar, Ramon CamposJuly 11, 2011*Page 2

On October 14 and 15, 2010, this officer called Mr. Aguilar's sister's residence and left voice mail messages on both occasions instructing the defendant to call me regarding his whereabouts. Mr. Aguilar failed to return my calls. This officer also contacted the defendant's girlfriend's residence and was advised by a female that the defendant had been staying there, but had not been there for a few days. This officer asked the female to notify Mr. Aguilar that he needed to contact me as soon as he could. To date, Mr. Aguilar has not contacted this officer or U.S. Probation.

Mr. Aguilar was subsequently charged with a robbery offense in Benton County Superior Court case 10-1-01055-0. Due to the defendant's new law violations, a violation report was submitted on the instant Federal offense on October 18, 2010. The Court issued a warrant on October 19, 2010.

On July 2, 2011, Ramon Aguilar was arrested on his Federal warrant in the Southern District of California. He was arrested as he was crossing into the United States from Mexico. Mr. Aguilar is considered in violation of his term of supervised release as he did not have prior permission to leave the Eastern District of Washington.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
